Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 50-75, 77-91 and 93-94 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claimed invention is allowed because the prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a food conveyer system and a method of managing food supply and food inventory, comprising a plurality of bases, each base supporting a serving of food, a conveying system for automatically conveying the bases, the system having a customer section and a food service station, wherein each of the bases is individually electronically identifiable, wherein the food service section includes an entry point, at least two food processing conveyer paths, means for diverting food servings at the entry point to one of the food processing conveyor paths, means for rejoining the food processing conveyor paths to each other at a food service section exit point that leads to the customer service section, and at least one sensor at each customer section for detecting and identifying the bases, wherein the customer section has a customer screen for displaying information of the type price of the food serving on the base identified by at least one sensor.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
